Every person insured is a menter of the Company, and entitled to one vote. The cost of insurance does not exceed one-third as much so in Stock Companies, saying nothing of the increased security and the incomparable case with which losses are settled. EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE BENTINEL.

Madison, January 22, 1852. The State Agricultural Society met in the Senate Chamber last evening. The President, Hon. E. B. Drury, being absent, H. N. Billings, one of the Vice Presidents, took the Chair. The Reports from the Officers were read in order. That of the Treasurer showed a healthy state of his department, there being $85 in the Treasury. The efficient Secretary, Mr. Ingham, read an able report of his doings for the year. He was obliged to lament that in many cases his endeavors to obtain information for the benefit of the Society have met with neglect, but still was able to acknowledge the readiness with which the majority repsonded to the call made upon them, in his correspondence. Mr. Ingham's labors have been so generally acceptable and useful, that he received the compliment of a vote of thanks and a re-elec tion to his office. Extracts were read from the report of the Excentive Committee. Among the important recommendations therein contained, was one suggesting an effect for legislative and other aid to obtain a permanent fund for the use of the So-

The use of the Assembly Chamber was granted this morning to Mr. Hastings, to give a lecture on the Maine liquor law, the members generally desiring information on the subject, inasmuch as they are to act on a similar project for this State. The bill to pay the mileage brought out an carne-t appeal from Col. Botkin of Madison, for its passage, inasmuch as the large sum which he re-ceives is very important to his comfort!

Mr. Lewis' resolution of sympathy with the Irish exiles, asking Government to interpose in their behalf, caused an interesting debate. Several members gave reasons why they should vote for it-Mr. Cate because he had some Trish constituents, and might want their votes again. Dr. Hoyt said there were 12 Irish votes cast for him and he might need their votes if ever he should be colish enough to be a candidate again. (The Dr does not appreciate the dignity of his station as he might, if he were not scated by the register and yeasted on one side daily.) Mr. Earnest said it had been reported that he had shut up 48 Irishmen in a mine on the day of election, so that they could not vote.

Col. Botkin-" Is the roport true that the gentle. man from Lafayette got them down in the mine, and then drow up the rope, so that they could'nt get (Great laughter.) Mr. Earnest-" I can a sure the gentleman from

Mr. Conger, because his Irish constituchts intended to be good Whigs bereafter. Mr Lewis, the mover, would not "confess the maize as to any political object in offering the resolution Mr. Sholes' amendment, asking the interposition of Government in behalf of the oppressed everywhere, in every legitimate manner, caused some squirming, but passed. Ayes 41, Noes 19. The noe were Messrs, Abbott, Averbeck, Beck, Briggs, Graham, Hackett, Hasse, Hilliard, Kinney, Lawrence Lewis, Maxon, McKee, Monroe, Mott, Murphy Ramsey, Staats, and Strong. The resolution final ly passed, Ayes 56-Noes 7. The mays being as follows:-Messey, Averbeck, Graham, Hackett Kinney, Murphy, Ramsey, and Strong. Our friend Graham was in a terribly tight place, but finally voted as stated.

A Message from the Gövernor, received just before adjourning for dinner, announced that he had forwarded the Kossuth resolution to that gentleman; and also a communication from Ex. Governor Dewey, as to the result of the mission of Mr. Delaplaine to Washington to endeavor to obtain a settlement of the claims which the State inherited from the Territorial Government on account of expenses paid for the Council. The defence hereofore set up against them has been that the monev to pay them was put into the hands of Secretay Floyd by the U.S. authorities; but they have on finally settled, by the payment of some 3000 dollars to this State. The money has pretty much disappeared, however, in payment of various objects of State expenditure. Mr. Delaplaine's mission also included the purchase of stationery for use in this quarter, the bill for which was some $1,800 or thereabouts. The money is all accounted for, to the last mill. I believe-but there are some carious speculations as to the propriety of allowing the Executive to "shell out" thus, on his own book. It is suggested that if Governor Farwell can be induced to undertake the charge of disposing of the public monies, there is no need of cetting into a trouble concerning the Treasurer's bond. By the way, Mr. Delaplaine was cho-"Heeper of public property" under the Governor of the "Sovereigns." For some reason unknown to me, the nomination was received by people hereabouts as a palpable hit. The report of the select committee on furnishnishing reporters was taken up this afternoon. It proposes, you will remember, to provide two reporters for the Madison Press, and one for the Sendinel and Free Democrat, of Milwaukee, and pay them $3 each per day.

The trouble arises from the fact that $1 for the session is too small pay for the papers first mentioned. The representatives of the Milwankee pre-s did not ask for reporters, but suggested that t-tice requires no favoritism in the premises-When the resolution came up, amendment after amendment followed thick and fast, proposing reporters for half a dozen or more of the other papers in the state, and all carried, until the precions question being moved, was lost, and the whole matter was thrown over for the day. Mr. Weil, who is a bit of a wag in his way, pro

The House did nothing clso of particular importance in the afternoon except to pass to a 3rd ending the Manitowoo harbor bill. The Senate struck out from the series of reso lutions expressing sympathy with the Irish Exlegitimate interposition by Government for the oppressed everywhere. The ayes and noes were not called for until after the vote was declared, when it was too late.

The sense of the People is to be taken upon th Yow Charter THIS DAY. The Polls in all the Wards open at teno'clock in the morning and close at four in the afternoon. one which experience has shown to be good for othing. The New Charter, if not wholly free from objections, is at least a vast improvement pon the present one. It was framed by a Conention chosen for the purpose by the electors of the different Wards, and the Committee who had he work especially in charge, have as large a stake in the prosperity of our city as any individuals amongst us. They have taken great pain with the Charter and to our thinking deserve well of their fellow-citizens, not only for devoting smuch time and labor, without fee, or reward, to the work in hand, but for the very faithful maner in which they have discharged the trust. We have yet to hear the first tangible objection o the new Charter. It is admitted, by all who ave read it, to be a very good one. It will bring or der out of chaos, and will substitute an efficier for an inefficient city government. So far as we know, or have heard, its provisions are very generally liked, and the only doubt of its adoption an se, from the probability of a very light vote being east. It seems from a telegraphic report of yesterday, but the Governor and Treasurer have been en-sized, at the instance of Levi Blossom, and that joined, at the instance of Levi Blossom, and that an effort is really on foot to discharge this gentleman from liability as a bondsman of the State Treasurer. The public are still in the dark as to the precie ground for this proceeding; and would like to know what the bill sets forth. Will not some of the Milwaukee papers publish it, and point out the allegations relied upon as grounds for relief? It is a novel case, and something new in the west.—Madison Aryas.

We have endeavored to obtain a copy of the bill filed by Mr. Brossom, that our readers might see and judge for themselves as to the merits of the application and the propriety of granting relief in the premises, but there is no copy of the ocument in town. Our friends of the Argus can no doubt obtain a copy from the office of the Clerk of Court in Madison where the original is filed. We understand that the bill sets forth i detail all the facts connected with Mr. Treasure Janusen's application to Mr. Blosson, to provide him with the necessary bail; specifies the precise and sole condition upon which Mr. Brossos greed so to do, and alleges that when the hon was thus obtained and Mr. JANNEN established a his office, he violated the agreement thus made etween himself and Mr. Brossoss. Thereupor the latter applies to the Courts to compel a restiation of the bond thus, as the bill alleges, fraululently obtained. The allegations contained in the bill are verified by the oath of the complainant, and substantiated by other evidence; among the rest, the affidavit of Mr. E. F. Henzalma, one of the editors and publishers of the Volksfround, in this city, and a countryman of Mr. Jannsen's, who, at the latter's solicitation, accompanied his to Mr. Brossom's office, for the purpose of introducing him to Mr. B., and inducing him (Mr. B. to become one of the sureties on January's official bond. It is upon this state of facts that Mr. Buos s a new one and the publication of the bill will arnish some desirable light on the subject. Muna News .- The Commercial, which don't eem to be well "posted up" about matters at dadison, allows a correspondent to write that "another drawback on the despatch of business, is the ncompetency of the Speaker."

Both Halls were brilliantly lighted, and crowded with guests. The dancing, with Hess to lead the band and Professor Bailey to call the figures, was kept up with great spirit. "With sentiments of great respect, your very obedient servant,
" LEONARD J. FARWELL,

The Chicago Tribune of Thursday las mishes the following explanation of some of the Mail failures which have recently occurred in this quarter. We are glad to hear that so reasonable an excuse can be made for these vexatious delays and disappointments:

and disappointments:

The Mails.—No mails from any point East of Toledo have been received in this city for four or five days past. Justice to the Post Office Department requires that we should say, that no blame for the delay attached to it. The almost unparallelled depth of snow, all over Southern Michigan and Northern Indiana, together with the extreme cold weather of the last six days, his marly stopped all the railroads trains. For three days, the track this side of Michigan city was covered so deeply, that no locomotive could get out of that place. The locomotive on the Southern Michigan road, after getting as far as Rolling that place. The technicity on the Southern Michigan road, after getting as far as Rolling Prairie, in Indiana, was "brought up" by the snow banks, and unable to pacceed this way.

Mr. Kimball of this city, Mr. Mathews of South Bend, and another agent of the Post Office Department are in Indiana, doing all they can to get the mails through.

THE IRISH EXILES.-We rejeice to learn, by the llowing Washington item, that Mr. Webster, the American Secretary of State, has addressed a letter to the British Government, entreating the release of the Irish Exiles new confined in Van Diemon's Land. We trust that his missive to the Court of St. James will prove as effectual in this case, as was the one to the Court of Spain in behalf of the Cuban Prisoners:

Washington, Jan. 13. if the Irish exiles now in Van Diemen's Land.

Mr. W. thinks the application will be success-

THE INJUNCTION.-The Wisconsin of Saturday ontinues its intemperate availts upon Judge Hubbrill, interlarded with splenetic invectives against outselves. We shall dismiss both with very brief comment. The Witconsin professes to quote the Sentinel, as asserting "that the Judge had judisdiction over the State Treasury." This is a heer inbrication. The Scalind has said nothing of the sort. The Wisconsin repeats its statement that it was informed "on the word of a gentleman of high character, that the editor of the Sentinel would be compelled to defend Hunnul's every

If any "gentleman of high character" put thi wise conceit into the Wisconsin's addled brain, he did so, no doubt, with the idea of "fooling it to the top of its bent." More like, however, the story is of its own base coinage. Omo FOR Cass .- The Detroit Free Press of Thursday last publishes an extract from a letter from a Member of the Ohio Democratic State Convention which says: "We have for Cass fourteen out of the twenty-one Congressional delegates, and both the Sena-torial delegates." The Free Press anticipates that the vote of Ohio in the Convention will be unanimously cast Horribie Tragedy.

The following comes to us in a letter post-mar-ked "Shatta, California." We have not seen it noticed in any of the published accounts from that quarter:—St. Long Rep., Jan. 17.

Westers Editors :

SHASTA CITY, CALIFORNIA

Permit me, through your journal, to record one of the most shocking minders, and subsequent saided of the murderer, that ever was perpetrated in any country; and, as the parties were from your city, its recital may be of some interest to a portion of your readers.

It appears that on the 15th of October last, Frederick Oberman and Jacob Frederick Gross, both Germans, and formerly from the vicinity of Frankfort, in Germany, were prospecting a galeh, for gold, in company. Oberman was armed with a pistol, earrying an ounce ball, and Gross with a large knife. Both appeared friendly at the time of leaving camp, and were to return at evening.—They proceeded about two miles from eamp, and Oberman suck a hole to prospect, and laid his pistol on the bank, a few feet from him, and commenced washing gold. While in the attitude of panning, Gross seized the pistol and deliberately shot Oberman through the head—the ball taking effect in the back part of the head and coming out at the mouth. After committing the horrible deed Gross drew his knife and nearly severed his own windpipe, but not producing death. He proceeded about 100 yards up the guleh, leaving a trail of blood after him, and affixed a grapevine to his neck and leaped from a bank about four feet high; but the vine broke and he was the second time defeated. He then returned to camp, and seized a blood after him, and 'affixed a grapevine to his neck and leaped from a bank about four feet high; but the vine broke and he was the second time defeated. He then returned to camp and seized a pistol and discharged it at his head, but it did not take effect. He was then discovered by some persons near by and placed in custody.

A scarch was immediately made for Obennan, who was found lying in the position in which he fell. A physician—Dr. M. C. Collins—was called, who succeeded in sewing up the wound in the threat. Gross was arrested for willful murder.—Or. criminal Court being in session as: the time, (on the 20th,) he was indicted, and on the 23d ult, he was tried in the District Court, before his honer, W. S. Sherwood, and found guilty. On the 23th, at 11 o'clock, A. M., the prisoner was brought into Court, and received his sentence—"to be hung up the neck until dead, on the 24th of November: inst." During the same forenoon, and after his sentence, the prisoner made a full confession to his coursel, of the whole transaction; which placed the crime beyond a doubt; as he was convicted on circumstantial evidence; and at one o'clock of the same day, he put an end to his existence, by cutting his throat from ear to ear, with a m2or which he had secured for hisown destruction.

Thus ended one of the bloodiest tragedies that ear, with a maor which he had secured for his own destruction.

Thus ended one of the bloodiest tragedies that was ever perpetrated even in California, where crime knows no bounds.

Oberman was about returning to the States, and thence to Germany this fall; and should his friends see this they can learn something of interest to them from these parts, by addressing the undersigned properly. Very respectfully, Your ob-Pt-sevant, H. A. CURTIS, District Attorney, Shasta ed., Culifornia.

Incidents of the French Unirpation Among those persons who were killed was Mr. Charles Hoffe, whose friends reside in Southampton. Mr. Hoffe was an intelligent and amiable man, and was for many years connected with the press in Paris; his knowledge of several languages rendered him peculiarly adapted for such a connection. His mother is an aged widow lady, residing at Southampton, and to whom the disastrous news of her son's death was a sad blow.—Mr. Hoffe was a widower, with two young children, who are staying in Southampton, it was dren, who are staying in Southampton it was only a week or two since that he came to England only a week of the Montagnard ex-representative of the Haute Vienne, was killed at the barrieude of the Rue Neuve St. Eustache, while carrying a of flag.

M. Reims, of the Order, an eminent journalist of Orleans politics, was among the killed on the Boulevards Montmartre, in the affair of Thursday.

Boulevards Montmartre, in the affair of Thursday. He was a warm supporter of M. M. Thiers and Changarnier. M. Reims was formerly editor of Courier Francais, and was at one time secretary to the Northern Railway.

A woman, upon whose person twenty-five poignards were found, was taken prisoner, and shot by the 36th of the line.

Thirty-five corpses were exhibited in the Cite Bergere on Friday week, only one of which was dressed in a blouse; one of them was that of a postman, with a letter still in his hand.

On the last day of the fight, an American was pursued into a shop in the Boulevard, where there were six or seven people, all of whom were bayonetted. Two Americans, viz:

Mr. Cascaux, of New Orleans, and Dr. Hunt, of Boston, were wounded and arrested that day.—

Mr. Caseaux, of New Orleans, and Dr. Hunt, of Boston, were wounded and arrested that day.— Dr. Hunt was set at liberty, but Mr. Caseaux was sent to the Conciergerie. During the firing of the troops on Thursday, an inoffensive Frenchman was killed in a room at Xo 19 Roulerand Montageries. notionsive Frenchman was killed in a room at No. 19 Boulevard Montmartre.

Col. Stuart and family, of New York, narrow-ly escaped from the balls that entered their apartments in the same house.

A captain of the staff, sent out with orders, was shot dead on Thursday by a young man aged 16, in the Rue de Paradis Poissonniere.

A man former's belowing to the Gardiens de in the Rue de Paradis Poissonniere.

A man, formerly belonging to the Gardiens de Paris (which force existed in 1848.) was crossing the Pont St. Michel on Thursday, carrying ammunition and two poignards, with which he threatened the Garde Republicaine, stationed in videttes on the bridge. He was an ested and taken to the Prefecture of police, where he was recognized as having formerly been an agent of Caussidiere's. As he had resisted and threatened the guards who conducted him he was shot her.

Many more sau incidents occurred on Trairsary.

A respectable marchand de vin, near the Porte St.

Martin, had gone for a moment outside his shop to speak to a person who was passing. The troops came up, and a Socialist who was standing by him shouted "A bas Napoleon." One of the soldiers who was in advance raised his musket to fire upon the Socialist; before the officer could raise his sword to prevent the fire, and the ball, instead of hitting the Socialist, struck the merchant de vin on the temple, and he fell dead in chant de vin on the temple, and he fell dead in sight of his wife, who was at the counter. A respectable tradesman was shot at his deak. In one house a gentleman was sitting in his drawing-room with his wife and daughter, when sive balls came through the window, and passed just over their heads lodging in the wall opposite. Two gentlemen of fortune, brothers, who resided at Vaugirard, near Paris, were crossing the boulevard, opposite the Passage des Panormans, and were shot dead. The Paris correspondent of the National Intelligencer says he has learned from unquestionable authority that the massacre on the afternoon of the 4th December, upon the Boulevards, of some sixty or seventy persons, was intentional and premeditated, with a view to strike terror into the population of Paris, and thus compel submission to the will of the Dietator.

PUNCH'S CRIMINAL COURT.—Mr. Punch sat for the purpose of trying offenders—some of whom when brought to the bar of public opinion at once pleaded guilty. The following are a few of the principal dolinquencies.

An unhappy youth was brought up, charged with maliciously cutting and wounding the English language, by asking, "Of what sax is the National Anthem?" and then replying, "Masculine," because it's a hymn (him). Verdict, guilty. Sentence deferred.

A shallwareated locking armed services.

because it's a hymn (him). Verdict, gunty. Sentence deferred.

A shabby-genteel looking person was next changed with uttering the following counterfeit joke:—'What tree is it which is not affected by the season, and brings forth neither blossom, nor fruit? The Boot Tree.'

After the jury had been absent several hours the foreman entered the Court, declaring that there was no chance of agreeing in a verdict.—The Judge told them that, under the circumstances, they had better go home.

A youthful individual, with a vacant stare, was next put to the bar under the following melancholy circumstances: Having passed the evening in company with a friend, he was about to bid the other good night, when turning suddenly round, he exclaimed, in a very "unusual tone of voice, "When is Fleet street like the country without a government? When there is no cab-init (cabinet)." The jury immediately returned a verdict of acquittal, on the ground of insanity.—

The Court then rose.

Mr. Clay and Kossuth.—A most interesting interview took place yesterday afternoon between Kossuth and Mr. Clay, the former being introduced by Mr. Cass.

Mr. Clay received Kossuth standing, and after being seated, addressed him for half an hour, trank-ly correspond by omittons. All. Clay received rossaft and hour, trank-being seated, addressed him for half an hour, trankly expressing his opinious.

He deprecated the policy of intervention, considering its adoption as the greatest calamity that could he fall this country, and said that the U.S., as the only living Republic and example of man's capability for self government, was bound to encourage progress and prosperity on this continent. These might be endangered and destroyed by foreign wars, and with them all hope of free institutions. These, he said, were the sentiments of a dying man, who for a whole life time had struggled for freedom.

Kossuth replied, but did not combat Mr. Clay's position. He confined himself to commenting upon the Hungarian revolution and the situation of France, which he believed would provoke civil wars, and perhaps a general revolution.

At parting, Mr. Clay rose, and bade Kossuth farowell forever, with nucle emotion wishing him God speed in his efforts for Hungarian independ-

Kossuth said that he should pray God daily for Mr. Clay's restoration to health. Both were deeply moved. Only four speciators pere present.—Mr. Clay will yet speak, or write his sentiments on the subject of intervention,

The feffort to-day will probably retard him somewhat, but he has otherwise gained the last lew days.

AFFICING INTELLIGENCE.—We understand, says the Rochester Democrat, that intelligence was received by the last steamer, of the death of Mrs. Murray, wife of the Hon. Charles Augustus Murray, the British Consul for Egypt. Mrs. Mr. was the last of three daughters of the late Hon. Jas. Wadsworth, of Geneseo. She was married in November 1850, and immediately set out for the official residence of her husband in Cairo, Egypt, where she died on the 7th of December last. The painful news will fall with crushing weight upon a large circle of freinds. She was a lady of rate accomplishments; although reared in affluence, she learned to feel for the unformante and afflicted, and to them her purse was ever open. Her age was about 37 years,—Eve Journal.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, THE BEST REMEDY EVER KNOWN fo MAN, for Coughs, Asthma, Colds, Croup, Bronchitis, Indurna, Blacking of the Lungs, Difficulty of Breath-ing, Liver Artections, Fain or Weakness of the Breast or Slife, First Stages of Consumption, &c. or short, this Bulsam is peculiarly adapted to every disease of the Lungs and Liver, which is produced in our ever-varying climate. of the Lungs and Liver, which is produced in our evervarying climate.

WILD CHERRY has long been known to possess important medicinal properties. This fact is familiar to every matron in our land, and physicians often prescribe it in different forms for a variety of complaints. Tar, also, has been equally noted for its virtues; and some physicians, whose names are familiar to the whole country, hase gone so far as to declare that even CONSIMPTION could be cured by that alone. In other lands, again, it was nearly valueless—owing, no doubt, to their ignorance in preparing and administering it—a difficulty now entirely obvisated by patient experiment and long experience.

The extraordinary medichan powers of these two substances are now, for the first time, combined and embodied in DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. By a nice chemical process, everything deleterious or uncless isrejected, so that what remains is the most extraordinary and truly efficacious remedy for all kinds of pulmonary and liver discases ever known to man. To convice all unbelievers that our theory is really true, we refer to a few cases of cures performed by this wonderful medicine:

PERSEASET RIDOR, HARTIN CO., O., S.

J. D. Park.—Dear Sir:—Itake the liberty of addising you of the benoit I have derived from the use of Dr. Wistaris Baisam of Wild Cherry. I was prostrated by that terrible seourge, Consumption, in May last. The attack was truly horrhying to me, for five of our family, theothers and sixters, had died of Consemption. I was efficient with nearly all the worst features of the disease. I had a discressed cough, and expectorated a great deal of blood, beetle fever, severe pains in the side and chest, cold chills, alternating with flushes of heat and copious night sweats.

I was under the care of a skillful physician, from the time I wastaken rick untilabout its weeks since, being then about helpless, and my frienduconsidered my case hopeless, or at loast beyond our Physician's skill, and altivised the use of Wistar's bisissum of Wild Cherry. Without my knowledge, my father procured it, and commenced administering it to me, and from the first day I commenced taking it, my health inspirovel, and in two week from the time I commenced using it, I was able to be out and oversee my business, and labor, which I still continue to do: I have taken four bottless of the medicine, and now consider myself perfectly well.

from which the above cut was taken. By it we can take the exact shape, and unorringly fit the most irregular heads. Many can testify to the inconvenience, and amnoyance, and actual pain they are subjected to, in breaking in Hats that will not fit them. By this ingenious contrivance, this very great annoyance is done away; as the Hats are made to fit perfectly the first time.

Another great advantage is, by keeping a copy of the impression, we can at all times fit our customers from all parts of the country.

We invite all who desire a perfect fit in a Hat, to call and leave an impression of their head; and all those who take pleasure in witnessing the inventions of the ingenious, to call and see the operations of this curious instrument.

Having adopted the Casu System (which all will readily acknowledge to be the best,) we are enabled to sell the best Silk Hat made, at the extreme low price of $4.25; surpassing any $5 Hat sold in this city. Our Hats are all manufactured by ourselves, and in offering them to our customers, we do so, with the confident essurance, they are all we recommend them to be, we invite all who do not wish to pay two profits upon a Hat, and are willing to save 25 per cent, to call and see us.
